

California Consumer Privacy Act Notice

Version 2023.3. July 1, 2023.

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 as amended and modified by the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (collectively, the “CCPA”) gives California residents enhanced access to and control over their privacy by establishing the following rights regarding Personal Information collected by businesses. Any capitalized terms used in this Notice shall have the meaning assigned to them in the CCPA.

A. If you are a California resident, you have the following rights under the CCPA:

1. Right to Know/Disclosure Right. You have the right to request a disclosure of the Personal Information collected, sold, and shared about you over the past 12 months and the purpose for doing so. Upon submission of a verifiable consumer or employee request, we will provide you with the following information. Please be aware that the disclosure results will not include credit report information, certain health information, financial information or driving records.

- The categories of Personal Information we have collected about you;
- The categories of sources from which we collect Personal Information;
- The specific pieces of Personal Information we have collected about you;
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting, selling or sharing Personal Information;
- The categories of Personal Information about you that we sold or shared;
- The categories of third parties to whom we sold or shared the Personal Information about you; and
- The categories of Personal Information that we disclosed about you for a business purpose and the categories of persons to whom it was disclosed for a business purpose.

2. Right to Deletion. If we collected Personal Information from you, you have the right to request the deletion of this Personal Information.

3. Right to Opt-Out of the Sale or Sharing of Personal Information. You have the right, at any time, to direct a business not to sell your Personal Information.

4. Right to Limit Use and Disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information. You have the right to limit a business's use of your Sensitive Personal Information to that use which is necessary to perform the services or provide the goods reasonably expected by an average consumer who requests those goods or services.

5. Right to Be Free from Discrimination. You have the right to be free from discrimination and/or retaliation for exercising any of the California consumer privacy rights. If you choose to exercise any of your CCPA rights, we will not:

- Deny you goods or services;
- Charge you a different price or rate for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties;
- Provide you a different level or quality of good or services; or
- Suggest that you may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

6. Right to Opt-In to the Sale of Personal Information for Children. A California resident minor (between ages 13 and 16) or child's parent or guardian (if the child is under the age of 13) has the right to opt-in to allowing us to sell that minor's or child's personal information.
